

THE MIKE CAMPBELL FOUNDATION
Presents

'ZIMBABWE: RISING FROM THE RUINS?'

9 October 2018

Mike Campbell Foundation presentation at the Royal Geographical Society in London on 9 October 2018

Chief Felix Ndiweni
Paramount Chief of the Ndiweni people

Fergal Keane OBE
BBC Africa Correspondent

Dr John Sentamu
Archbishop of York

Gift Konjana MP
MDC Alliance

Ben Freeth MBE,
MCF Executive Director

CHAIRER BY THE HON
KATE HOEY MP
Chairman of the
All-Party Parliamentary
Group on Zimbabwe

The five speakers for the evening, and Kate Hoey MP, chairman of the event

Four of the speakers with event chairman, The Hon. Kate Hoey, MP

From the left: Gift Konjana, MDC Alliance MP; Chief Felix Ndiweni, Paramount Chief of the Ndiweni people in Zimbabwe; Ben Freeth, MCF Executive Chairman; Archbishop John Sentamu, the Archbishop of York; and Kate Hoey MP, Chair of Britain's All Parliamentary Group on Zimbabwe

From the left: Chief Felix Ndiweni in discussion with Gift Konjana and Ben Freeth

Chairman Kate Hoey welcomes the guests and introduces the theme for the evening

Kate Hoey introduces the speaker line-up
From the left: Gift Konjana, Chief Felix Ndiweni and Ben Freeth
(Missing from the photo: the BBC's Fergal Keane and Archbishop John Sentamu)

Fergal Keane OBE
BBC Africa Correspondent

Regrettably Fergal Keane was sent to South Africa on an assignment and was unable to attend the event, so he recorded his presentation which was screened during the programme

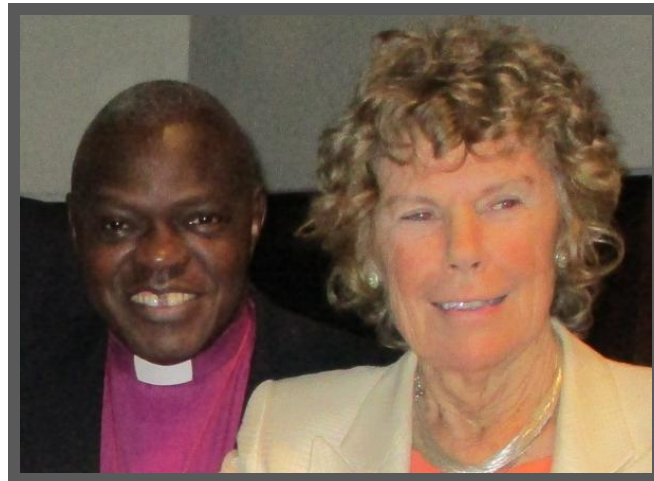

Dr John Sentamu
Archbishop of York

Archbishop Sentamu had to leave the event shortly after giving his presentation due to another commitment

Chief Felix Ndiweni (centre) with members of Restoration of Human Rights (ROHR) Zimbabwe

Archbishop John Sentamu and Kate Hoey

Members of Restore Human Rights (ROHR) Zimbabwe

Restoration of Human Rights (ROHR) Zimbabwe is a non-political organisation whose members are committed to bringing about change in Zimbabwe.

Kate Hoey (centre) with a member of ROHR Zimbabwe and Ben Freeth

Gift Konjana chats with members of the audience

Chief Felix Ndiweni with a member of Restoration of Human Rights (ROHR) Zimbabwe

Guests enjoy a laugh with Chief Ndiweni after the presentations

OUR FOCUS:

- Justice
- Rule of law
- Property Rights
- Human Rights
- Destitute farm workers:
- Conservation agriculture training*
- School fees support*

Claire Freeth, MCF chairman, outlines the MCF's initiatives and thanks the audience for their attendance (file photo)

For further information, visit:

www.mikecampbellfoundation.com